

GRACE – the most beautiful way to celebrate a wedding.

Everything is new and fresh in May and GRACE appears to be made on purpose for unique, tasteful wedding banquets. With its restrained elegance it is the perfect porcelain for a beautifully presented wedding meal.

As multifaceted as a blossom, GRACE appeals to the eyes of the wedding guests. The luxurious lightness of the delicate porcelain with its characteristic flowing lines and surfaces emphasises the emotionality of the eternal vows being exchanged. Celebrate GRACE's delicate poetry at your festive table, and try out exciting arrangements by exploiting the attractive interplay of classic basic shapes and sparkling highlights.

Put your culinary ideas in a festive light – something you can achieve most readily with "Value", an extraordinary pattern. The fine curves of its gold and grey lines, reminiscent of slender blades of grass, exude a decidedly superior elegance. It is the icing on the cake at any festive banquet.

Another pattern, "Surface", even goes a step further: Not only does it create visual highlights but the precise sandblasting technique used in its production additionally provides an unforgettable tactile experience at the festively arranged table. This special feeling, like touching filigree lace, once again underlines GRACE's superiority.

Enjoy GRACE and use it to create a unique personal backdrop for your wedding festivities.

DEAR READERS,

When the merry month of May arrives as the harbinger of summer, nature finally awakens fully from its winter slumber. Everything becomes verdant, begins to bud and bursts out in blossom. Such overflowing joie de vivre naturally "spills over" into the area of catering as well – most particularly with regard to weddings.

No matter where you are, Schönwald's creative porcelain provides you with an ingenious medium to help you transform every imaginable celebration into an unforgettable event for your guests – whether you are organising a formal banquet in a magnificent dining hall or a dazzling open-air summer festival. Schönwald offers you perennial favourites such as FINE DINING and EVENT or completely new porcelain collections such as GRACE.

In this issue we would like to present you with a few suggestions on how you can produce the perfect celebration with bravura and sophistication. And, as you'll see – when it comes to weddings, it doesn't always have to be white. Hoping that your festive arrangements will truly remain unforgettable for your guests!

Yours,
The Schönwald Team

🌀 It doesn't always have to be white. 🌀

HOW FASCINATING it is when different characters with varying facets come together to create an appealing symbiosis. In FINE DINING, austere, angular shapes are conjoined with soft, round ones in a kind of porcelain union. A great deal of love has gone into the detail. With FINE DINING you can create the appropriate setting for a wedding meal. And, because not everybody chooses bridal white for their wedding, FINE DINING's splendid gold décor, "Arabesque" adds a surprising touch, while its discreet coffee-coloured decorations which put a modern spin on the glorious days of yesteryear are also the perfect complement for the smart coffee table.

Hot and cold seduction.

SIGNATURE by Schönwald loves the unusual interplay of the elements ensuring, for example, that dessert provides some astonishing moments. An emotive pyrotechnic display of porcelain, glass and ice is the crowning glory of the sophisticated wedding banquet. With SIGNATURE your culinary creations bear the signature of the future. The gourmet platter with its generous serving surface offers you plenty of space for very special presentation ideas with different materials.
